Dear Power Glen Families,

This year, we are planning to use Remind for our school. If you aren't familiar with Remind, it is a free messaging tool that makes it easy to reach students and families on any device.

Despite sharing information through our monthly newsletter, class websites, Synervoice calls, etc, it can be challenging to connect with families, but many people always have their phones close by! Remind is built for education, so we can send important updates and reminders about school directly to families.

Remind is safe.

- All personal contact information stays private.
- Messages are always recorded and available to download any time.
- Reporting tools help the community work together to keep Remind safe.

Remind is simple.

- Messages can be sent to all participants, smaller groups, or individuals.
- Schools can choose how they want to communicate: - Send one-way messages or - Send and receive messages (students must be over 13)

Remind is free to use on any device.

- Remind is completely free to use for teachers, students, and parents.
- Messages can be delivered to any device—no smartphones necessary. Participants can receive messages by text, mobile and desktop push notifications, web login, and email.

To learn more about Remind, take a look at the website (remind.com) or contact the remind.com support team with any questions. Please see the back of this page for information on how to set up this communication tool.

Thank you for your support,

Mr. Digweed
Principal
